

WAL-MART WORKER'S VOICE

UFCW Certified at Quebec Wal-Mart Store

The tide is turning in Wal-Mart workers' favour ...

180 employees of a Wal-Mart store in the Saguenay region of Quebec have become the first Wal-Mart workers in Canada to become certified union members. The Quebec Labour Relations Board ruled on Monday that a majority of workers in the store have signed union membership cards and certified the workers as members of UFCW Local 503 in Quebec City.

Don't let the company fool you, across Canada Wal-Mart workers are asking UFCW to help bring the benefits of union membership to their store. Like you, they have worked hard to help make Wal-Mart the richest company in the world. Like you, they deserve a better deal.

We are standing at the front of a movement for change at Wal-Mart. Together with the workers from Quebec and others across Canada, you will help create a new deal for Wal-Mart workers.
